

Puppy Vaccination & Health Routine

Age	Treatment
8 Weeks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physical examination • Distemper-Parvo Combination Vaccine – 1st booster in 3 booster series. • Dewormer
12 Weeks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physical examination • Distemper-Parvo Combination Vaccine – 2nd booster in 3 booster series. • Dewormer • Bordetella (Kennel Cough) Vaccine • Lyme Vaccine – 1st booster in 2 booster series.
16 Weeks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physical examination • Distemper-Parvo Combination Vaccine – 3rd and final booster in 3 booster series. • Dewormer • Lyme Vaccine – 2nd and final booster in 2 booster series. • Rabies Vaccine
6-8 Months	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Spay/Neuter Recommended • Microchipping recommended at the time of spay/neuter surgery
1 Year	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Annual Physical Examination • Rabies Vaccine – Annual booster will be eligible for 3 year booster if updated within the month of the due date. • Distemper-Parvo Combination Vaccine – Annual booster. • Lyme Vaccine – Annual booster. • Kennel Cough Vaccine – Annual booster. • 4DX Test – Annual blood test that tests for heartworm, lyme, erlichiosis, and anaplasmosis.

Treatments for flea, tick, and heartworm prevention are critical when taking steps to keep your pet as healthy as possible. Just ask our staff about the many options we provide for the prevention of many different parasite infestations that can affect your dog. Our staff will be able to help you decide which preventative works best for you and your pet!